Governor Sends to the Legislature Message

WITH SEVERAL REQUESTS.

Chief Executive Transmits to the Law-makers a Number of Subjects and Asks That They Be Considered and Duly Acted Upon.

Austin, March 18.—Governor Campbell sent to the legislature the following message, embracing eleven additional subjects.

To the Legislature. By virtue of the authority vested in me by section 40, article 3, of the constitution of the state of Texas, I hereby designate the following subjects and suggest legislation thereon:

1. To regulate and fix the passenger fares on all railways in this state, and to provide for the redemption of all railroad tickets sold.

2. To enact adequate laws and amend existing laws relative to the rendition and assessment of all taxable property and the equalization thereon for taxation in this state, and to provide appropriate penalties and venue.

3. Appropriate legislation for the reimbursement of the permanent county school fund of counties in which the same has been impaired or squandered, and the complete rehabilitation, protection and preservation of the permanent school fund of such counties in the future.

4. To enact laws making appropriations for the necessary funds for the protection and security of the public free school lands and other public lands belonging to the state, and to better enable the state to recover such lands from trespassers and unlawful occupants and to enact laws to secure the attendance of witnesses on all trials relative to such lands.

5. Such laws as will provide for all necessary supervision, examination and control of all banking corporations, and banks doing business in this state other than national banks.

6. Such legislation upon the subject of life and fire insurance as will provide adequate and safe insurance protection for the people of this state, and as will reduce the cost of insurance and also the hazard of loss by fire.

7. Such laws as will provide suitable penalties and venue for violations of the anti-trust laws of this state, and to check the evils of unlawful monopolies and combinations having for their object the control of the necessities of life and the arbitrary advance or reduction of prices thereof.

8. The enactments of laws to conform the statutes of this state to the Federal statutes upon the subject of the liability of railroads and common carriers engaged in state and interstate commerce to their employees.

9. To amend and strengthen our statutes regulating the granting of liquor licenses, and the revocation and cancellation thereof, and the regulation thereof, and the regulation of the liquor traffic so as to secure the enforcement of said laws, and for such as will secure the enforcement of all laws respecting the liquor traffic in this state.

10. The enactment of laws to provide a system of electric power and lights and waterworks for the purpose of supplying electric power, electric lighting, and water to the state capitol, the general land office, the governor's mansion, the state university, and the various public institutions of the state, by the construction of the state's own plant or plants or to contract for such electrical power, electric light and water.

11. To amend the existing inheritance tax law and provide for the enforcement of the same, and laws providing for the collection of delinquent taxes upon property, real, personal and mixed.

T. M. CAMPBELL,
Governor of Texas.

Face Covered With Handkerchief.

Waco, March 18.—That the negro who assaulted the young daughter of W. T. Simmons near Tokio, used Chloroform or some other anesthetic to quiet her is the information brought by Sheriff Tilley. The girl suffered loss of memory a number of hours, partially due to this and fright. She says the negro covered her face with a handkerchief.

Big Blaze at Texarkana.

Texarkana, March 18.—Peech Street Baptist church, College of Surgeons and residence of Julius Scherer were destroyed by fire. Total loss is $33,000.

THOMAS MATTER.

Eight Thousand Copies Are to Be Printed.

Austin, March 18.—In the senate Thursday a remembrance of the Thomas matter came up, when a resolution was adopted providing for the printing of 8,000 copies of the senate journal containing the proceedings in connection with the expulsion of the gentleman from the Sulphur Springs senatorial district. The resolution merely stated that this action was necessary on account of the great demand over the state for copies of the proceedings.

The senate spent the entire morning session passing bills providing for the establishment of experimental stations in various senatorial districts. It seems the arrangement reached among senators is that an appropriation will be reduced to $5,000, consequently each bill passed contained an appropriation of $5,000 for establishment of a station. The following bills for establishment of experimental stations, passed under suspension of the rules:

By Hudspeth: One in Tom Green and one in El Paso counties.

By Adams: One in the Twenty-sixth senatorial district.

By Mayfield: One in the Twenty-seventh senatorial district.

By Watson: One in his (the Ninth) district.

By Hayter: One in his (Thirty-first) district.

These bills were introduced in the senate.

By Ward: Land bill, providing compulsory attendance of witnesses at trial of land suits, who may be found outside the county in which such witnesses reside. It provides for per diem of such witnesses.

By Hume: To validate sales of real estate within this state heretofore made by foreign executors of estates.

By Cofer: Fixing amount of bond in cases of forcible entry and detainer.

By Cofer: Relating to appeals to district court in probate cases.

TAKE TOO MANY BATHS.

So Declares a Lecturer in Referring to American People.

New York, March 18.—Elmer S. Lee, a lecturer, addressing the Medico-Legal society at the Waldorf-Astoria, declared that American people take too many baths. His auditors smiled, then gasped, when Dr. Lee declared that there was a man in the audience who had not bathed in twelve years. Despite this, the physician continued that he respected the man and was in sympathy with his beliefs.

"I am looking at the man now," he said. He did not further designate the individual in question and most of the audience were disappointed. Several men fidgeted about as if embarrassed, but none arose to announce that he had shunned water so long.

PRAYED FOR REAL MEN.

Georgia Women Tells of the Prohibition Campaign in Georgia.

Chicago, March 18.—"Whenever the people of the church sit down like sapsuckers instead of getting out and working, they can expect to see little of their community go dry," says Mrs. Mary H. Armour, state president of the Woman's Christian Temperance union of Georgia, who is here to tell the Illinois women how her state went dry.

"When the fight was started for temperance," she declared, "we women just began to pray and what we prayed for was men—real men—who could not be afraid to stand up for the truth."

"You must not sit across the table from your husband, and say to him, 'honey, you might do this,' but instead you should sit on his lap and say to him, 'honey, won't you do this for me.' Husbands are human and can be won to a good many things that you would not ordinarily think."

Must Answer Another Charge.

McAlester, Okla., March 18.—Selden S. Loving, alias W. R. King, completed a sentence in the state prison here Thursday. The sheriff of Jackson county, Kansas, met him with a requisition warrant and took him to that state to answer a charge of obtaining money under false pretense. He is a physician.

"Thirty" For Frank Bell.

Hopkinsville, Ky., March 18.—Frank Bell, a widely known newspaper man, died here Thursday after a lingering illness. He had been connected with many leading newspapers in the south.

WITH NO AMENDMENTS.

Republicans of Ways and Means Committee So Decide

AS TO THE TARIFF BILL.

Representative Broussard of Louisiana Votes With Majority, but All of the Other Democrats Go on Record in Opposition of It.

Washington, March 18.—The house committee on ways and means, after the first meeting of the full committee, agreed to report the Payne tariff bill back to the house without amendment. The Democrats were given until next Tuesday to prepare a minority report.

Representative Broussard of Louisiana voted to report the bill without amendment, but all other Democrats on the committee voted against it. The vote was 13 to 6.

DIVERSE VIEWS.

Some Deem New Tariff Bill as Blessing, Others a Menace.

Chicago, March 18.—The new tariff bill is welcomed as a blessing and also regarded as a menace in various industrial circles of Chicago.

Eugene Buffington, president of the Illinois Steel company, sees a blight for the steel industry if the measure is enacted with its contemplated provisions.

J. Harry Selz says the shoe industry will flourish like a bay tree if hides are put on the free list.

The proposed reduction of the tariff duties on lumber will not have any material effect on prices, according to local dealers.

Wool dealers are not as sanguine as consumers of getting any benefits from scheduled changes in wool duties, and wholesalers are equally doubtful as to whether the measure as now formulated will increase revenue.

Unfavorably Received at Manila.

Manila, March 18.—Proposals embodied in the Payne bill for the revision of the tariff have been unfavorably received here because of the limitations placed on sugar and tobacco. It is generally felt that if there is to be unrestricted admission of American products to the Philippines it is only fair to admit freely Filipino products to America. It is expected the commercial bodies of the islands will meet and cable protests against proposals on the Payne bill which are considered objectionable here.

HARRIMAN'S RETIREMENT.

There is No Hint Whatever of Its Possibility in Near Future.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 18.—The statement attributed to E. H. Harriman at Pasadena regarding the present state of his health and the possibility of his retirement from active life as published here appears to have somewhat at variance with the intended meaning of Mr. Harriman's remarks on the subject. There is no hint of any possibility of his retirement in the near future.

BLOWS OUT HER BRAINS.

Rash Act of Young Lady Due to Quarrel With Her Sweetheart.

Okmulgee, Okla., March 18.—Despondent because she had quarrelled with a young man to whom she was engaged, Miss Lena Spencer, twenty-two years old, placed a revolver to her head and blew out her brains. The quarrel occurred last Wednesday and the girl had been despondent since.

Mme. Modjeska Seriously Ill.

Los Angeles, Cal., March 18.—Mme. Helena Modjeska, the famous Polish-American actress, is seriously ill at her home on Bay island, near Newport, Orange county. Mme. Modjeska's husband, Count Bozset, is in constant attendance at his wife's bedside. The veteran actress has been suffering for a long time from a chronic kidney trouble, but her ailment has been newly complicated by an affection of the heart and lungs. Mme. Modjeska was born near Cracow, Poland, in 1844.

Viewed With Alarm.

Washington, March 18.—The working men of the country employed in the iron and steel trades view with alarm the Payne tariff bill, according to a statement issued here by L. Lewis, vice president, and John Williams of Pittsburgh, secretary-treasurer of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers of North America.

Million Dollars to Be Given.

New York, March 18.—Formal announcement was made of the decision of the trustees of the Peabody education fund to give to the Peabody College for Teachers, affiliated with the University of Tennessee at Nashville, $1,000,000 outright to be used in preparing teachers for the southern states.

Large Land Purchase.

El Paso, March 18.—Sam F. Baxshare of Waco closed negotiations for the purchase of a large tract of timber land in the territory of Lepicu, Mex. A mill may be erected and lumber cut for shipment. He purchased from Torreon interests.

Careful men quickly learn that the choice of a Banking institution of high standing is one of the most important elements of business success.

RECORD OF THE TURK

Has Won and Lost More Land Than Any Other Nation.

ONE TIME A WORLD BUGBEAR.

Then the Tide Turned, and One Great Misfortune Followed Another Till He Was Almost Swept Out of Europe by the Treaty of Berlin.

The "Terrible Turk," who may be taken as typifying the empire of the sultans, holds one record at least which he is not likely to be deprived of. He has won and lost more territory than any other nation.

There was a time when the sultan was the bugbear of the world. Even little children in England shook in their shoes when they heard his name mentioned, and those people who lived anywhere near him dared not call their lives their own.

But at last the tide turned. The Turk began to lose, and one great misfortune followed another.

Spain was the first big bit of the Turkish empire to break free. The Moors, who were subject and paid tribute to the sultan, were driven from province after province until at length they were cooped up in the solitary kingdom of Granada.

The last Moorish king to reign in Spain was Boabdil-el-Chaco, or Boabdil the Unlucky. In 1482 Ferdinand and Isabella, the king and queen of Aragon and Castile, declared war on him, and in 1492 he had to surrender everything.

Hungary, which now forms half of the dual monarchy of the Emperor Francis Joseph, was a province of the sultan for 150 years. Then it was torn from him by the sword.

After this came the turn of the czars. The Russians, whom he once despised, have been the Turk's worst enemies. They have either robbed him themselves or encouraged others to rob him.

Peter the Great set the example, but was not, on the whole, very successful in his wars against the Moslems. At one time the Turks could have captured and massacred Peter and his army, but were frustrated by the slave girl, Catherine, whom Peter had married.

Catherine the Great tore the Crimea from the unhappy Turk, together with thousands of square miles of territory along the shores of the Caspian.

In 1821 the Greeks, who had been slaves of the sultans for many centuries, rose in rebellion and drove the Turks out of the country. But then the Greek leaders began to quarrel among themselves, and civil war followed.

Then the Turk took the opportunity to seize the country once more.

But the massacres and other horrors which followed aroused Europe. In 1827 the Turkish fleet was destroyed at Navarino. The combined fleets of Britain, France and Russia took part in the operation.

In 1828 Greece was acknowledged as a free and independent kingdom, with a king of its own.

For nearly a century Egypt, which the Turk conquered in 641, has been part of the sultan's empire in little more than name, and since 1882, when the English occupied Pharaoh's country after Arabi Pasha's rebellion, the Turk has had practically nothing to do with Egypt.

The Moorish corsairs who had their lair in the pirate city of Algiers acknowledged the sultan as their suzerain, but were defiantly independent as regarded all the rest of the world.

Their swift sailing dhows preyed on the commerce of all Europe, and from start to finish they seized many thousands of white captives, many of whom they ransomed, while others they doomed to slavery.

When asked to keep his piratical subjects in order the sultan declared himself helpless to do anything. The freebooters went on doing as they liked for a long time. Then France became weary of patience and forcibly took possession of the city in 1830.

Since then she has annexed 307,980 square miles of Algerian territory once subject to the sultan.

Then came the Turk's worst time. Russia made war on him, and the Balkan states, which had been held as provinces by Turkey for hundreds of years, revolted, flew to arms and did everything they could on the side of Russia.

Had the czar been left to himself the Turkish empire would have been practically destroyed. The other great powers, however, were afraid to see Russia too powerful. They insisted on summoning the congress of Berlin.

By the terms of the treaty of Berlin the Turk was almost swept out of Europe. Bosnia and Herzegovina were handed over to Austria to keep in order. Roumania, Serbia and Montenegro were declared absolutely independent of him. Bulgaria was created into a principality, nominally under the sultan's suzerainty, but in reality free. And then Austria annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.—Pearson's Weekly.

Corpse Discovered Near Track.

Waco, March 18.—Frank Zajcak, Bohemian, about forty-five years old was found dead Wednesday morning near the Katy track not far from Elm Mott, eight miles north. Presumption is he was killed by a train.

Shoots Out Right Eye.

Nacogdoches, Tex., March 18.—In attempting to force too large a bullet into a rifle Clay Morrison, twenty-one years old, accidentally discharged his gun. Charge of powder shot out his right eye.

BRYAN, TEXAS, MARCH 19, 1909.

CHARITY THINKETH NO EVIL.

There is a suspicion in the minds of many good people that submission was defeated in the legislature by corrupt means, and some go so far as to charge openly that this is so. This was to be expected. Those who have had experience in public affairs know that it is almost always the case when great interests are at stake and strong passions excited some of the defeated party claim that they have not had a square deal, and especially is this the case when the margin of the victors is narrow, as in this instance. If we give way to our impulses it is the easiest and the most natural thing in the world to blame the other fellow when he gets what we want. To make an indefinite and general charge or insinuation requires neither ability nor courage. Anybody can do it, excepting those whose actions are habitually governed by the principle that "charity thinketh no evil."

No man has a moral right to assert or even insinuate that another is untruthful or dishonest until he is prepared to prove the charge. Suspicion is unworthy of a noble mind. Nobody likes to be spoken of as "a suspicious person." Yet good people under the influence of excitement or prejudice allow themselves to do what their own sober judgment and conscience condemns. Life is full of tragedies resulting from unfounded charges and unjust suspicions; none of us can escape the "outrage of the defamer, and the golden rule forbids our doing to another what we are unwilling to have done to us. It is especially unworthy of those claiming to be the apostles of great moral ideas to condescend to the level of contemptible gossips and scandal-mongers.

The action of the legislature on the submission resolution was taken under such circumstances that it would have been almost impossible for bargain, intrigue or corruption to escape detection. A majority in both houses including many of the ablest members were submissionists, and nobody has questioned the honesty of any of these. Hon. Sterling P. Strong and an able corps of assistants were there watching every movement of the enemy, especially those who were suspected or whose position was not well defined. To assert that the whicky lobbyist got in his work without detection under such circumstances is almost equivalent to impeaching either the integrity or the sagacity of the ablest submissionist leaders. For reasons given heretofore, The Eagle sincerely regrets that the submission resolution failed to pass, and if anyone will furnish any proof that such failure was brought about by corrupt means, The Eagle will take great pleasure in publishing the facts and helping to bring down on the guilty parties the punishment they deserve.

Those who use kerosene and more especially those who use gasoline engines are perfectly willing for the oil war to go on indefinitely.

A St. Patrick's day without broken heads is no better than a Fourth of July without firecrackers. The day was not fittingly observed in Bryan.

Senator Thomas is not the only one who could profit by a prayerful study of Ecclesiastes VII: 16, which reads: "Be not righteous overmuch, neither make thyself otherwise; why shouldst thou destroy thyself?"

The report that Mr. Bryan will raise lemons and prunes on his Texas fruit farm is erroneous. Something nutty is what Mr. Bryan likes, such as the pecan; also something refreshing like the watermelon.

Mr. Speaker Marshall is a new figure in state politics and is just now the cynosure of all eyes. The speakership is inferior in importance only to the governorship and everybody wants to know whether Mr. Marshall is big enough to fill it.

The action of the house in asking for Speaker Kennedy's resignation was just and the result is a victory for civic righteousness, but he had the moral courage to acknowledge his error and is taking his punishment like a man. What a contrast with that other illustrious citizen of Texas who after the disgraceful facts were published and admitted still persisted in saying: "I have done no wrong."

In the contest over the rules of the national house of representatives the Democrats were betrayed by a few renegades led by Fitzgerald of New York. The beneficiary of this treachery has rewarded the traitors by giving them important committee appointments, the announcement of which was hissed by the defeated party. This shows how bitterly the minority members resent the base means resorted to to compass their defeat.

THE WEATHER.

Special to Bryan Morning Eagle.

New Orleans, La., March 18.—Tonight increasing cloudiness. Warmer
Friday; generally cloudy.—Cline.

Weather Notes.

Galveston, March 18.—The area of high pressure has moved slowly eastward to the Mississippi valley and western Lake region and, in consequence, temperatures are lower in the north-central states. It is warmer, however, in the northwest and generally thru the cotton belt. The northeastern disturbance is now off the New England coast and light snow has fallen during the past 24 hours from the western Lakes east to the Atlantic. Very light showers occurred in southern Texas. There is considerable cloudiness this morning in Pacific coast regions and in east Gulf states, but thruout the central valleys and the Plateau the weather is fair.
It is somewhat cooler in southwest Texas, and warmer in other portions of the State. At time of report the weather was fair and the temperature ranged from 32 degrees at Amarillo to 56 degrees at Corpus Christi.

River Forecast.

There will be no important change in the Trinity, Brazos and Colorado rivers.

Acting Section Director.

Good Clothes Help Out.

Clothes may not make the man but the odds are largely in favor of the well dressed man. And as to whether a man is well dressed or not, depends largely upon the material of which his clothes are made, the cut,
the style and the makeup in general.
Noticing the many new spring shipments coming to Bryan, the reporter remarked to Mr. W. J. Coulter while in his store, that Bryan was a top notcher on fine clothing. Mr.
Coulter said: "that is a fact and you can say for me, and I make the statement without any apology, that I have the best line of clothing, best material, latest cut and most stylish and perfect fitting for $15.00 a suit, ever shown in Bryan. 89-23

A buggy of variegated colors on the streets yesterday afternoon created quite a lot of merriment. Like Jacob's coat, it was of "many colors." The body was yellow, white seat, red running gear, one red wheel, one yellow, one white, and one blue. The secret was, it was driven by some painters who were advertising their business.

To every purchaser buying a boxful of our Wunderdorse, in either Men's, Women's or Children's goods, we warrant these goods to wear from date of purchase without having to be mended in the foot, or we will replace them free of charge. Everyone has at some time worn the ordinary—unguaranteed hosiery—the kind that the toes or heels "punch through" from the slightest wear—and for which alas! the manufacturer offers no redress. The price paid was as high or higher than that charged for Wunderhose—but the value was missing.

How many, many times have you donned a new pair of hose in the morning, only to find on removing them at night that they already required darning? This can now be made a thing of the past. A few costly experiments are sufficient for the sensible buyer of hosiery to learn that it is cheaper to buy Wunderhose—fully protected with an iron-clad warrant—than to accept an over-priced, unvalued brand.

Long Trestle Needs Repairs.

Commissioner W. L. Edge stated to the Eagle reporter while in the city yesterday that the long trestle on the Navasota river on the Iola road was in a very bad condition. His business in town was to advise with Judge Board as to what was best to be done, but did not get to see the Judge as he was attending court at Hempstead. Mr. Edge says the trestle is in a serious condition and whatever is done, must be done quickly. The truth is, it is practically down and needs to be entirely renewed. This is a most important highway and worth a great deal to Bryan, as well as being a great convenience for the people coming from Grimes county, and the Eagle hopes the Court in its wisdom will decide to maintain it and keep it in first class condition. Good roads and bridges are the greatest public necessity.

POTATOES LOOKING FINE.

President Edge of the Farmers Union Gives Figures Showing Value of Diversified Farming.

President W. L. Edge of the Brazos County Farmers Union, was in the city yesterday on road and bridge business with Judge Board.

In conversation with the Eagle man Mr. Edge stated the Irish potato prospect in his community was fine. There is quite a large acreage in potatoes in his neighborhood and they are up to a beautiful stand and growing nicely. Mr. Edge is a firm believer in Irish potatoes as a money crop and says the conditions are right this year for the farmers to have made good money if they had gone into the business.

As a matter of personal experience Mr. Edge stated that last year he made clear on his potatoes $20.00 an acre after all expenses of every kind were paid. When the Irish potato crop was harvested it left the land in perfect condition, fertilizing and all, for sweet potatoes, and on the same land made 150 bushels of fine sweet potatoes to the acre. He said he did not sell a potato for less than 75 cents per bushel, which made his sweet potatoes bring him $112.50 per acre. On the two crops combined, $132.50 per acre.

This is certainly a fine showing and is an object lesson for other farmers in the county to give serious consideration. These are facts that cannot be disputed and the Eagle hopes to see the day come, and speedily when the farmers of the county will get out of the old rut and engage actively in diversified farming.

GIRLS HEROISM REWARDED.

Special to the Bryan Morning Eagle, Washington, D. C., March 18.—

The nation today paid tribute to the heroism of Miss Mary McGann by the presentation of a gold life saving medal in recognition of her heroic services at the time of the General Slocum steamboat disaster in New York five years ago.

The presentation ceremonies took place in the Speaker's room in the presence of the Speaker, the Vice President of the United States, the members of the Congressional delegation from New York and others.

On the day of the General Slocum disaster Miss McGann, then a girl of fourteen, was convalescing from scarlet fever on North Brother Island, near where the ill-fated steamer was burned. The river was filled with human beings and little Mary McGann, disregarding her own illness, waded into the water and rescued nine children.

HOKE SMITH THE CHIEF SPEAKER.

Special to the Bryan Morning Eagle, Buffalo, N. Y., March 18.—The Democratic Society of New York has completed elaborate arrangements for its banquet at the Elliott Club tonight in celebration of the seventy-second anniversary of the birth of Grover Cleveland. The principal address at the banquet will be delivered by Gov. Hoke Smith of Georgia, who was a member of President Cleveland's cabinet.
